

The Marriage Trifler

By HAZEL DEYO BACHELOR
Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.

Barbara Makes the First Move

Barbara Knight was a marriage trifter, which is to say she was a girl who looked upon marriage as something to be entered into only after she had seen the real thing for herself. She was not at all averse to the idea of matrimony, but she was not at all sure that she was going to get the most eligible man in her set and she was not at all sure that she was going to get him for all good things come to her without any trouble.

Barbara was a girl who was not at all sure that she was going to get the most eligible man in her set and she was not at all sure that she was going to get him for all good things come to her without any trouble. She was not at all averse to the idea of matrimony, but she was not at all sure that she was going to get the most eligible man in her set and she was not at all sure that she was going to get him for all good things come to her without any trouble.

Barbara finally got rid of Eleanor without betraying her real feelings she never knew. But she finally found herself alone, alone with an evening to kill, alone with Keith away somewhere, and with her thoughts making her so miserable that she felt she simply couldn't bear it.

Barbara waited, planning her campaign as she held the receiver tensely to her ear. She would go down to the office to see her father-in-law. There were any number of reasons she could use for casually dropping in, and she would see this girl. Cold hatred rushed over her, the feeling that one woman should not have another woman who has interfered, and when Katherine finally came back to the telephone with the information that Mr. Jeremy Grant was in, Barbara said icily:

Barbara finally got rid of Eleanor without betraying her real feelings she never knew. But she finally found herself alone, alone with an evening to kill, alone with Keith away somewhere, and with her thoughts making her so miserable that she felt she simply couldn't bear it.

Barbara waited, planning her campaign as she held the receiver tensely to her ear. She would go down to the office to see her father-in-law. There were any number of reasons she could use for casually dropping in, and she would see this girl. Cold hatred rushed over her, the feeling that one woman should not have another woman who has interfered, and when Katherine finally came back to the telephone with the information that Mr. Jeremy Grant was in, Barbara said icily:

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

THE GYPSY DOGS

By DADDY

DEGGY and Billy listened eagerly as Foddy Pupkins told how his father, the sheep dog, had followed the stolen horse, Gray Prince, to the camp of the gypsies.

"The ugly gypsy dog that met my father acted as though he would tear him to pieces, when my father said he was going to take Gray Prince home," said Foddy Pupkins. "He-r-r-rough! I'm the boss fighter of this camp, and I let no strangers near the horses."

"So father was ready for the gypsy dog when the chap flew at him. He jumped aside and the gypsy dog's teeth snapped the empty air. But father's teeth snapped, too, only they snapped the gypsy dog's leg. Less than two bars father had the gypsy dog down and howling for mercy."

"The gypsy dog's howls brought all the other dogs of the camp, and they gathered around, snarling and snapping. 'Help! Help! Eat up this stranger!' howled the gypsy dog. But the other dogs were wise. They knew from the father's warning that the gypsy dog was giving him an awful biting. They didn't want any of that biting themselves."

"The howling brought the gypsies, too, and first among them was Red Peter, the gypsy king. 'Holly-toity, what's this? Some strange dog is chewing up Snapper, my best fighting dog, yelled the gypsy king. He aimed a mighty kick at father."

"Father was a knowing dog, and when he saw the kick coming he whirled around so Snapper was between him and the gypsy's foot. Whack! went the kick, landing in the gypsy dog's ribs. 'Ow-ow-ow!' yelled Snapper, flying so fast and far his leg was jerked out of father's jaws."

"Grab this stranger! Sic him!" shouted Red Peter to the other dogs. At him, Growler and Snarler. "Growler and Snarler leaped at father, and the gypsy king aimed a second kick at him. Father dodged Growler's jaws, and caught him by the ear just in time to whirl him in front of the coming kick. Wham! the gypsy king's toe hit Growler, lifting him howling into the air and hurling him over the bushes, keeplish! into a bog. That was all the fighting Growler wanted that day."

"In the excitement Snarler tried to seize father by the throat, but father got Snarler by the nose. My, how Snarler did yelp and squeal at that. And he yelped a lot harder when Red Peter, trying a third time to kick father, gave Snapper an awful bang with his boot."

"Red Peter had been angry when his first two kicks hit his own dogs instead of the imprudent sheep dog, but now he couldn't help laughing over father's cleverness."

"Ho, ho! This is a crafty sheep dog and a good fighter," roared Red Peter. He shall be the boss of all the dogs in my camp."

"Father was pleased with that, for he thought it would make it easier for him to get Gray Prince away. But the gypsy dogs didn't like it. They began to growl and show their teeth. Father was as quick as he was knowing, and before the other dogs could start for him he started for them. The first dog he nipped on the side, the second he grabbed by the tail, the third he slashed across the face, and by the time he got to the fourth and fifth they were running yelping to hide themselves."

Here Foddy Pupkins stopped to bark fiercely in pride over his father's victory. Then he went on: "So father became boss of the gypsy dogs without any more trouble, and now I'll tell you how he found Gray Prince in spite of a sly trick by which the gypsies tried to fool the horse's owner and friends."

But Foddy Pupkins' story of the gypsy trick will have to wait until tomorrow.

er did yelp and squeal at that. And he yelped a lot harder when Red Peter, trying a third time to kick father, gave Snapper an awful bang with his boot. "Red Peter had been angry when his first two kicks hit his own dogs instead of the imprudent sheep dog, but now he couldn't help laughing over father's cleverness."

"Ho, ho! This is a crafty sheep dog and a good fighter," roared Red Peter. He shall be the boss of all the dogs in my camp."

"Father was pleased with that, for he thought it would make it easier for him to get Gray Prince away. But the gypsy dogs didn't like it. They began to growl and show their teeth. Father was as quick as he was knowing, and before the other dogs could start for him he started for them. The first dog he nipped on the side, the second he grabbed by the tail, the third he slashed across the face, and by the time he got to the fourth and fifth they were running yelping to hide themselves."

Here Foddy Pupkins stopped to bark fiercely in pride over his father's victory. Then he went on: "So father became boss of the gypsy dogs without any more trouble, and now I'll tell you how he found Gray Prince in spite of a sly trick by which the gypsies tried to fool the horse's owner and friends."

But Foddy Pupkins' story of the gypsy trick will have to wait until tomorrow.

er did yelp and squeal at that. And he yelped a lot harder when Red Peter, trying a third time to kick father, gave Snapper an awful bang with his boot. "Red Peter had been angry when his first two kicks hit his own dogs instead of the imprudent sheep dog, but now he couldn't help laughing over father's cleverness."

"Ho, ho! This is a crafty sheep dog and a good fighter," roared Red Peter. He shall be the boss of all the dogs in my camp."

"Father was pleased with that, for he thought it would make it easier for him to get Gray Prince away. But the gypsy dogs didn't like it. They began to growl and show their teeth. Father was as quick as he was knowing, and before the other dogs could start for him he started for them. The first dog he nipped on the side, the second he grabbed by the tail, the third he slashed across the face, and by the time he got to the fourth and fifth they were running yelping to hide themselves."

Here Foddy Pupkins stopped to bark fiercely in pride over his father's victory. Then he went on: "So father became boss of the gypsy dogs without any more trouble, and now I'll tell you how he found Gray Prince in spite of a sly trick by which the gypsies tried to fool the horse's owner and friends."

But Foddy Pupkins' story of the gypsy trick will have to wait until tomorrow.

er did yelp and squeal at that. And he yelped a lot harder when Red Peter, trying a third time to kick father, gave Snapper an awful bang with his boot. "Red Peter had been angry when his first two kicks hit his own dogs instead of the imprudent sheep dog, but now he couldn't help laughing over father's cleverness."

"Ho, ho! This is a crafty sheep dog and a good fighter," roared Red Peter. He shall be the boss of all the dogs in my camp."

"Father was pleased with that, for he thought it would make it easier for him to get Gray Prince away. But the gypsy dogs didn't like it. They began to growl and show their teeth. Father was as quick as he was knowing, and before the other dogs could start for him he started for them. The first dog he nipped on the side, the second he grabbed by the tail, the third he slashed across the face, and by the time he got to the fourth and fifth they were running yelping to hide themselves."

Here Foddy Pupkins stopped to bark fiercely in pride over his father's victory. Then he went on: "So father became boss of the gypsy dogs without any more trouble, and now I'll tell you how he found Gray Prince in spite of a sly trick by which the gypsies tried to fool the horse's owner and friends."

But Foddy Pupkins' story of the gypsy trick will have to wait until tomorrow.

er did yelp and squeal at that. And he yelped a lot harder when Red Peter, trying a third time to kick father, gave Snapper an awful bang with his boot. "Red Peter had been angry when his first two kicks hit his own dogs instead of the imprudent sheep dog, but now he couldn't help laughing over father's cleverness."

"Ho, ho! This is a crafty sheep dog and a good fighter," roared Red Peter. He shall be the boss of all the dogs in my camp."

"Father was pleased with that, for he thought it would make it easier for him to get Gray Prince away. But the gypsy dogs didn't like it. They began to growl and show their teeth. Father was as quick as he was knowing, and before the other dogs could start for him he started for them. The first dog he nipped on the side, the second he grabbed by the tail, the third he slashed across the face, and by the time he got to the fourth and fifth they were running yelping to hide themselves."

Here Foddy Pupkins stopped to bark fiercely in pride over his father's victory. Then he went on: "So father became boss of the gypsy dogs without any more trouble, and now I'll tell you how he found Gray Prince in spite of a sly trick by which the gypsies tried to fool the horse's owner and friends."

But Foddy Pupkins' story of the gypsy trick will have to wait until tomorrow.

er did yelp and squeal at that. And he yelped a lot harder when Red Peter, trying a third time to kick father, gave Snapper an awful bang with his boot. "Red Peter had been angry when his first two kicks hit his own dogs instead of the imprudent sheep dog, but now he couldn't help laughing over father's cleverness."

"Ho, ho! This is a crafty sheep dog and a good fighter," roared Red Peter. He shall be the boss of all the dogs in my camp."

"Father was pleased with that, for he thought it would make it easier for him to get Gray Prince away. But the gypsy dogs didn't like it. They began to growl and show their teeth. Father was as quick as he was knowing, and before the other dogs could start for him he started for them. The first dog he nipped on the side, the second he grabbed by the tail, the third he slashed across the face, and by the time he got to the fourth and fifth they were running yelping to hide themselves."

WANAMAKER'S DOWN STAIRS STORE WANAMAKER'S

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

Men's Light-Weight, All-Wool Cheviot Suits

A Fine Buy at $34.50

A price actually below usual wholesale cost. And they are fine!

Summer suits in every particular, these are of light-weight all-wool cheviots in a great variety of good patterns, with gray, green or brown as the predominating colors. Coats are in the semi-conservative style that men of good taste never tire of. They are half or quarter lined with mohair and there are fittings in all regular sizes from 34 to 42.

(Gallery, Market)

Sports Hats at Their Gayest

are smiling and beckoning in the Millinery Salons. There are soft little hats of ribbon that won't mind being crushed; there are hats made of row on row of narrow braid, white on top and navy blue beneath; and, most recent of all, velours. These soft, velvety new velour hats are in blue, black, brown, henna and jade green at $8.50.

The other sports hats range in price from $3.85 to $12.50. (Market)

50c Will Buy Good Suspenders or a Good Belt

and either one is special at the price. The belts are of brown or black leathers which a little scratch or mark classes as "seconds." The suspenders are of good, strong elastic with leather ends and brass trimmings. (Gallery, Market)

Boys' Khaki Knickers Special at $1.85

(7 to 18 Year Sizes)

Exactly the sort of trousers that the boys need for outdoor, vacation wear. They are of sturdy olive drab khaki, exceptionally well made. (Gallery, Market)

A Pound of Talcum Powder, 20c

Its cooling fragrance is most refreshing these hot, sticky days. In corylopsis, violet and trailing arbutus scents. (Chestnut)

Metal Bag Tops 75c and $1.50

These are all in the oxidized finish and have chains complete. There is a variety of designs and every top was originally marked considerably more. (Chestnut)

Georgette Crepe and Taffeta Blouses at $2.90

These blouses are made in many, many ways, most of them rather simple. A great many short-sleeve kimono styles are among them. The Georgettes are in pretty figured patterns. The taffetas are overblouses in small checks. And there are some pretty, fluffy voiles in the group. It's unusual to be able to buy such pretty blouses for so little! (Market)

$1.90 $2.75 $1.65
Inexpensive White Skirts
$1.65 $1.90 $2.75

Just the sort of skirts that you need for everyday wear, for they are fresh and white and will stand many tubbings. All three are sketched. $1.65—for a skirt of fancy-ribbed pique with button-trimmed pockets. In 25 to 30 inch waist sizes. $1.90—for a skirt of mercerized white gabardine which is in sizes 25 to 30 inches. $2.75—for an extra-size skirt of mercerized white gabardine in sizes 32 to 38 inches. Other delightful skirts of gabardine, poplin, surf satin and linen are priced up to $8.75.

New Silk Skirts

in all the charming sports weaves and glowing colors, as well as white, are here at $12.75 to $22.50. (Market)

Organdie and Voile Flouncings Special at $1.75 a Yard

They are 40-inch flouncings with seven pretty ruffles on each. Organdie is in white, orchid, light or Copenhagen blue, flesh and pink. Voile is in orchid, navy blue, gray, Copenhagen, flesh, pink and rose. (Central)

Women's Summer Wraps Are Much Reduced

Though there are not many of any one kind, there is a wide variety in coats, capes and dolans for your choosing. They are just the type of wraps that women need for the seashore or the mountains. The new prices, which go into effect tomorrow, are $16.50, $18, $25 and $29. (Market)

A Bathing Suit, of Course

must be included among your vacation togs. Women's and children's suits of all sorts are to be found in the Surf Store at most moderate prices. Women's suits are of surf satin, silk poplin, taffeta or satin at prices which range from $3.75 to $9.50. Plenty of caps, shoes, tights, garters and beach capes, too. (Market)

Japanese Straw Rugs In Two Good Sizes 8x10 feet, $6 9x12 feet, $7.50

They are the good, double-warp straw rugs that are in demand for porches and indoors. There is a substantial saving on every one. (Chestnut)

Colored Organdies in Gay Hues 60c and 75c a Yard

They are of crisp, fine quality, 40 inches wide, in Rose, Pale green, Light blue, Pink, Orchid, Violet. (Market)

Narrow Ribbons For All Pretty Summer Uses

Have you noticed how many organdie dresses and soft silks have bows and girdles of narrow ribbons? Sometimes they have picot edges, sometimes they are satin or grosgrain, but always they are pretty and high fashionable. Not a few of the broad-trimmed hats are bound and trimmed with these ribbons. A great assortment of delightful colors is here in ribbons of this type, measuring one-half to an inch and three-quarters in width. 32c to 68c a yard. (Central)

Summery Things for Wee Babies

Soft little sacques of white cashmere or crepe de chine give just the right amount of warmth over baby's shoulders. Some have shell edges, some are button-holed and scalloped, some have fancy stitchery in white, pink or blue. They start at $2 and go to $5 for quite an elaborate little affair lined with silk. Dainty lawn bonnets with tiny tucks, briarstitching, lace or embroidery for trimming will fit the tiniest babies to two-year-olds. 45c to $3. Carriage robes of white pique are hemstitched or scalloped, at $1.25. (Central)

Cool and Pretty Cotton Dresses

And, Important to Note:—At Very Low Prices. There are dark ones and light ones, but they are all dainty and fresh in style. It would take more time than most people have to spare to count the many, many styles that are here.

$15 $13.50

are surprising in the delightful hues and frilly modes designed for vacation wearing. Prices are $6.50 to $17.50, with many between.

The White Dresses
and there are many of them, are usually of crisp organdie and prices run from $15 to $27.50.

Voiles in Endless Patterns and Colorings, $3.75 to $16.50
Dark grounds are worth a word to themselves. Navy blue dotted or figured voiles are in abundance. And there are many pretty light colors, too, in as many styles.

Gingham Dresses as Bright and Gay as Morning Itself, $5 to $7.50
In pretty small checks or large, gay plaids; usually they show crisp white collars and cuffs and some have white pipings.

Beaded Georgette Dresses
are good to travel with. They do not muss easily when packed and are always ready to slip into. At $38.25 there are navy blues, blacks and some of flesh-pink that are simply or elaborately beaded.

Tricolette Dresses at $17
in several styles are embroidered or plain—in brown, navy blue, black and beige.

The Pretty Dresses Sketched
One of organdie with a long roll collar of embroidered organdie in peach, pink, Nile green and maize. $15. The other is a sports dress of white voile; the overblouse shows embroidery in a dull rose color. $13.50. (Market)

TRAYLOR

Cornwells Plant

Traylor Products Are Foremost and Stand Alone Throughout the World

In every line of business there is a real basis for LEADERSHIP.

THE TRAYLOR ENGINEERING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY is conceded to be the pioneer and leader throughout the world, in the development and manufacture of mining machinery, smelting machinery, crushing machinery, sugar machinery, pumping machinery and the sole manufacturer of the famous cement gun.

WHEN A PRESENT OR PROSPECTIVE USER of any of these products contemplates installing equipment he thinks first and foremost of TRAYLOR.

THE ESSENCE OF THIS MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE IS: We have built up in Allentown, Pennsylvania, on the merit of our products and fair dealing with our clients, one of the great institutions of the State of Pennsylvania, and the products of the Allentown Plant can be found in every part of the world.

ALL PENNSYLVANIA, DELAWARE, MARYLAND, NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK have heard of the Traylor Shipbuilding Corporation on the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad in the suburbs of Philadelphia, consisting of wonderful plant equipment, great water frontage, miles of trackage on the property, over one hundred acres of land and strictly fireproof, modern manufacturing buildings, all of which has been transformed from a shipbuilding plant into one of the most important and strictly modern, up-to-date truck and farm tractor plants to be found anywhere in the country.

OUR TRUCK AND FARM TRACTOR PRODUCTS are now being shipped to almost every quarter of the world. Back of this truck and tractor stands the reputation of the Traylor Engineering and Manufacturing Company, the brains of their organization and the ability of engineers equal to those of any other great corporation in the world.

IN THE DESIGN of both the TRAYLOR Truck and the TRAYLOR Farm Tractor it has been our aim to make these products as good as the Allentown products, and the user will find our truck and tractor equal to the very best to be found in any country.

WE ARE placing our whole reputation back of these products. We have and will continue to put the best engineering brains into them, and back of this combination our undisputed manufacturing ability, coupled with materials of the best quality only.

WE ARE GIVING our clients real service and we have unexcelled facilities and parts with which to supply them.

YOU PURCHASE YOUR TRUCK FROM US and specify any type of body put on your chassis—a body built by our corporation, in our plant. This alone is a great advantage over purchasing your chassis at one place and sending it a great distance to another and having the truck tied up for weeks awaiting the body equipment. In our plant it can be built and delivered to you complete with the truck.

ALL TRAYLOR PRODUCTS, machinery, ships, guns, motor trucks and farm tractors, must pass the TRAYLOR TEST—which means that the satisfied customer is our objective point. It is on that foundation of service that the TRAYLOR reputation for ability and HONESTY HAS SPREAD ITSELF SO RAPIDLY TO ALL PARTS OF THE GLOBE.

WE WANT EVERY PHILADELPHIAN AND ALL PENNSYLVANIANS to feel proud of this great manufacturing plant which we have established in the suburbs of Philadelphia, where trucks and tractors may be had of real merit and quality, built for service.

IT IS A REAL PLEASURE to have all business men visit this plant, see what it looks like now, WATCH IT GROW, and then visit us again in twelve months.

Traylor Engineering & Manufacturing Co.

Truck and Farm Tractor Division Philadelphia Temporary Sales Quarters
Cornwells, Bucks Co., Pa. 17 North 21st Street
Phone—Locust 6912

MOTOR TRUCKS & FARM TRACTORS